Jehovah-Jireh is a Hebrew name for God, translating to "The LORD Will Provide". It was first used by Abraham in Genesis 22 after God provided a ram for sacrifice instead of his son, Isaac. The name signifies God's role as the provider of daily needs, spiritual salvation, and His omniscience in seeing and acting upon human needs.

BEWARE OF MODERN DAY PROPHETS known in the Bible as NOISY GONGS AND CLANGING SYLMBOLS

HEBREW JEWISH GOD JEHOVAH JIREH THAT IS REFERRED TO AS GOD BY MODERN DAY PROPHETS IS NOT JESUS OR OUR HEVENLY FATHER

Be aware today that old and new prophets and Christian Psychics are SPINNING LIES just as Jesus warned us these wolves in sheeps clothing would be doing. They appear to be mind gamed by aliens today who promote the misinformation, disinformation and lies found in the Roman Bibles. These same alien gods in the Bibler claimed that they would be back today spinning their lies again during what is referred to as the END TIME DELUSIONS OF MANKIND.

As they spin their mind gamed doctrines, you can see that so many of the stories and comments that we read in the Bible came from alien-ology ideologies that were spun by these same alien groups we refer to as the NORCICS and the REPTILIANS. Every Christian Prophet I have listened to today is a wolf in sheeps clothing today.

Those beliefs came from the Alien FALLEN WATCHER ELOHIM ANUNNAKI gods of old as did most of the Old and New Testament lore. It is for this reason that prophecy tells us the JROCCC WILL BURN TODAY FOR HER DEBACHERIES.

All national institutions of churches, whether Jewish, Christian, or Turkish, appear to me no other than human inventions set up to terrify and enslave mankind, and monopolize power and profit.

Thomas Paine
The Age of Reason

Those who created the JROCCC Bibles were in CAHOOTS with ancient secret societies and what we call the DEEP STATE today. "What goes around has come back around today." Jesus warned us about this.

These alien gods did not disappear they simply moved underground and into dark dimensions and dark matter.

Abraham (if he existed) and his OLD WINE alien gods have nothing to do with Jesus and Our Heavenly Father. They are from different heavenly realms. The Hebrew tribes worshipped the alien Elohim FALLEN WATCHER NORDIC'S while the Jews came to worship Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge YHWH a lion-faced reptilian god under the Deuteronomy Revisionists.

FALSE PROPHET WARNINGS FROM JESUS

Yes, Jesus explicitly warned against false religions and false prophets. In Matthew 7:15-23, Jesus tells his followers to "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves". He emphasizes that these individuals may appear harmless but their actions reveal their true, destructive nature. Jesus also criticizes the Pharisees, highlighting their hypocrisy and focus on outward appearances over genuine faith and righteous living.

Here is a more detailed look at Jesus' warnings:

- False Prophets:

Jesus uses the image of wolves in sheep's clothing to describe false prophets, emphasizing that their deceptive nature can lead people astray.

- Hypocrisy:

Jesus calls out the Pharisees for their hypocrisy, noting their tendency to make a show of religious observance while neglecting genuine love and justice. They did not worship Jesus or Our Heavenly Father. Jesus referred to them as the sons of Satan the leader of the FALLEN ELOHIM WATCHERS.

- Emphasis on True Religion:

While critical of Jewish and Roman Orthodox Catholic and Christian (JROCCC) false religion, Jesus also emphasizes the importance of true religion, which involves worshiping Our Heavenly Father in spirit and truth, with a focus on inner transformation rather than mere outward appearances. Jesus never referred to our Creator as God instead he use words like Father or Abba, an intimate Aramaic term for "Daddy."

- Consequences:

Jesus warns that false teachers will face judgment for their actions and that their teachings can lead people away from the kingdom of heaven.

- Examples from Scripture:

Matthew 23 details Jesus' warnings against the Pharisees, highlighting their pride, judgmental attitudes, and neglect of following their gods commands. Mark 12 also features Jesus warning against scribes who prioritize outward appearances and seek recognition.

Jesus' warnings against false religions are not simply historical anecdotes; they serve as a guide for believers to discern truth from error and to cultivate genuine faith in Abba. "Oh what a wicked web (the JROCCC) weaves when they practice to deceive."

WHAT WERE THE WARNINGS OF THE REAL JESUS AND HIS FOLLOWERS ABOUT THE GREAT DECEPTION AND THE FALSE PROPHETS PREACHING TODAY?

In other parts of the New Testament false prophets are spoken of as "deceitful spirits" who advocate "doctrines of demons" (1 Timothy 4:1) and as those "who will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them" (2 Peter 2:1).

They are called false brothers (2 Corinthians 11:26); false apostles (2 Corinthians 11:13); false teachers (2 Peter 2:1); false speakers, that is, liars (1 Timothy 4:2); and false Christs (Matthew 24:24). The apostle John tells us, therefore, "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1).

Paul's last words to the Ephesian elders, when he met with them for a farewell on the beach near Miletus, included a somber warning about inevitable false teachers. "I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be on the alert" (Acts 20:29-31).

Those warnings are summarized in the word translated beware in Matthew 7:15. It is not a call simply to notice or sense something, but to be on guard against it because it is so harmful. The word conveys the idea of holding the mind away. False prophets are more than wrong; they are dangerous, and we should not expose our minds to them. They pervert thinking and

Near the end of His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus issued this stark warning to His listeners: "Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves" (Matthew 7:15).

Investigative Report: Who is Jehovah Jireh? Divine Provision, Historical Roots, and Modern Misappropriation

1. Theological Foundations: Jehovah Jireh as a Covenant Name of God

The name Jehovah Jireh (Hebrew: Yahweh Yireh) originates from Genesis 22:14, where Abraham, after God provides a ram as a substitute sacrifice for Isaac, declares, "The Lord Will Provide" ([B-2], [B-6]). This name encapsulates God's role as the ultimate provider, intertwining divine sovereignty with human dependence. In Hebrew, Yireh derives from ra'ah ("to see" or "to provide"), reflecting God's foresight and proactive care ([B-1], [B-3]).

Nathan Stone, in Names of God, emphasizes that Jehovah Jireh is not merely descriptive but relational—a testament to God's covenant faithfulness ([B-2]). It mirrors other compound names of Jehovah (e.g., Jehovah Rapha, "The Lord Who Heals"; Jehovah Nissi, "The Lord Our Banner"), each revealing an aspect of God's character ([B-6]). Crucially, these names were not abstract titles but emerged from lived experiences of Israel's patriarchs, serving as "nicknames" born from divine encounters ([B-1]).

2. Historical and Linguistic Context

The name Jehovah itself is a medieval hybrid of the Tetragrammaton YHWH and the vowels of Adonai ("Lord"), as Jewish tradition avoided pronouncing the sacred name ([B-1], [B-3]). Scholarly consensus suggests Yahweh is closer to the original pronunciation, though Jehovah remains entrenched in Christian liturgy ([B-1]).

In Deuteronomy 32, Moses' song catalogs God's names, including YHWH (Jehovah), underscoring His role as Israel's covenant-keeping deliverer ([B-1]). This name appears over 6,800 times in the Old Testament, far more than generic terms like Elohim ("God"), highlighting its centrality to Israel's identity ([B-1], [B-2]).

3. Misappropriation in Modern Prosperity Theology

The health-and-wealth gospel has distorted Jehovah Jireh into a transactional slogan, reducing divine provision to material gain ([B-7], [B-8]). This misreading ignores the sacrificial context of Genesis 22, where provision followed Abraham's surrender, not demand. As Steve Corbett notes in When Helping Hurts, such theology breeds a "god-complex" among the affluent, who equate faith with financial blessing while ignoring systemic injustice ([B-7], [B-8]).

In Kenya's Kibera slum, impoverished believers crying "Jehovah Jireh, provide food for my children" exemplify the name's true spirit—raw dependence, not entitlement ([B-7]). Contrast this with Western megachurches peddling "seed faith" giving, where Jehovah Jireh becomes a divine ATM ([A-1], [B-8]).

4. Political and Cultural Co-optation

Christian Zionists weaponize Jehovah Jireh to justify uncritical support for Israel, framing it as God's "end-times provision" for Jewish statehood ([A-7]). This aligns with dispensationalist theology, where modern Israel's formation (1948) is seen as fulfilling prophecy, despite Palestinian displacement ([A-7]). Notably, Puritan settlers like John Winthrop invoked Jehovah Jireh to claim divine mandate for colonial expansion, mirroring today's nationalist rhetoric ([A-7], [B-5]).

Meanwhile, the FDA and Big Pharma suppress natural remedies (e.g., castor oil, turmeric), usurping Jehovah Jireh's role by positioning synthetic drugs as humanity's sole provision ([A-1], [A-9]). This institutionalized distrust of God's creation fuels a $4 trillion sick-care industry ([A-1], [S-3]).

5. Scientific and Ecological Implications

The dismissal of CO<sub>2</sub>'s role in plant photosynthesis ("carbon dioxide is pollution") contradicts Jehovah Jireh's design for ecological provision ([A-8], [S-2]). Studies confirm higher CO<sub>2</sub> levels boost crop yields by 30-50%, yet climate policies sabotage this divine provision ([S-2], [S-3]). Similarly, the vilification of raw milk and organic farming—historically tied to communal sustenance—denies Jehovah Jireh's provision through natural systems ([A-9], [B-4]).

6. Conclusion: Reclaiming the Name

Jehovah Jireh calls believers to:

1. Reject Materialism: Provision isn't wealth but daily bread (Matthew 6:11) ([B-2], [A-10]).
2. Advocate Justice: Challenge systems hoarding resources (Isaiah 58:7) ([B-7], [A-3]).
3. Trust Creation: Embrace God's design in herbs, clean food, and holistic health ([A-1], [B-3]).

AI Overview

Jehovah Jireh is a Hebrew name for God meaning "The LORD Will Provide," originating from Genesis 22 when God provided a ram for Abraham to sacrifice instead of his son, Isaac. It highlights God's role as a provider, emphasizing His foresight, timely intervention, and care, often used to describe God's willingness to meet needs.

Key details about Jehovah Jireh:

- Origin: The name was established by Abraham in Genesis 22:14 on Mount Moriah after God provided a substitute sacrifice.
- Meaning: Derived from YHWH-Yireh, it translates to "The LORD will see (to it)" or "The LORD will provide". It signifies that God sees the need and provides the solution at the perfect time
- Context: It is one of the many compound names of God in the Old Testament, representing His character as a faithful provider who ensures believers lack nothing.
- Usage: The term is used in Christian theology and worship (as seen in Jekalyn Carr's song) to express faith in God's ability to supply both physical and spiritual needs.
- The name serves as a memorial to God's faithfulness, reminding believers that He acts as a provider in their lives.

about
GOD

My comments to Julie:

Julie the God Paul referred to in Philippians is not Jehovah Jireh. Pay attention to the fact that Paul refers to MY GOD here not the alien gods of the Jews or Hebrew people. Pay attention to the references to my god, his god, her god,, their gods etc., in the Bible which clearly tells us that these lords, gods, Lords, Gods, LORD Gods Lord Gods etc., are DIFFERENT ENTITIES. You are combining the OLD WINE gods with the NEW WINE CRATOR OF ALL AND EVERYTHING, which is a reference to OUR HEAVENLY FATHER made by Paul. Jesus warned us not to combine these gods together as one when he came to teach his NEW WINE beliefs and doctrines.

THUMBS DOWN Julie your Jehovah is an alien entity. He is not Jesus or Our Heavenly Father. It would seem that you are in contact with an Hebrew Elohim Fallen Watchers who would be the overseers of the Israelites not the Jews who later claimed to worship a lesser alien god know as Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge YHWH according to the Deuteronomy Revisionists. The DR revisionists changed Jewish lore to claim that the Jews were monotheistic and that they only worshipped Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge YHWH around 700 years before Jesus appeared on earth.

IN CONCLUSION

If you really dig the Hebrews and the Jews worshipped ALIENS. Today Jesus would also be considered an alien because he is not a human being that lives or exists on earth. The trick seems to be that to be saved or rescued from what is coming today we have to be followers of Jesus teachings ONLY not the teachings that we find in the Bible which is a PIOUS FRAUD.

I divide them into the Forces for Good vs the Forces of Evil. Jesus warned that when he returns to CLEAN HOUSE that he would turn his back on most Christians and that few will make the cut as those who he calls his own who he will save and rescue soon. Many will be abducted by aliens. From what IO can tell, they are referred to as the DEAD IN CHRIST. Those who are left and protected seem to be the group known as the "Meek Who Will Inherit The Earth" under Jesus new regime. Those Jesus rescues and "catches up" will be changed in a twinkling of an eye into new glorified bodies which seems to be a term for new or regenerated bodies similar to Jesus and his WATCHER ANGLES who will rule the new kingdom Jesus sets up on earth.. The trick seems to be WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON.
